 Details for the Canada Cup Finals and Qualifiers ***

Dates : September 6-7, 2025

Sanction : IPRA

Added money per discipline : 15 000$

Entry Fee : 300 $ + 20 $ (Fee)

Disciplines :

- Bareback Bronc Riding
- Saddle Bronc Riding
- Bull Riding
- Tie Down Roping
- Steer wrestling
- Ladies Barrel Racing
- Pickup Race
- Exchange Race
- Poney Express
- Junior Events (not the same added money)

Qualifications :

In order to participate in the Canada Cup rodeos on the first weekend of St-Tite Western Festival, competitors must accumulate points on the Canada Cup circuit and have participated in at least three Canada Cup qualification rodeos.

Anyone who wants to participate in the Canada Cup and who is on the official ranking (cumulative points), can enter even if they are not qualified. If a place is available, the next in the ranking who made entries, will have the place.

If there is a tie on points, the contestant with the most money raised during the qualifications will qualify, if the tie persists, a draw will then be made.

A 2024 champion who is in the Top 5 of the 2025 rankings more than once will have the extra spot filled by a wild card.

Détails:

As in the women's and men's barrel racing disciplines, youth barrel racers, aged 15 and under as of January 1st, will have to qualify during the season to qualify and register at St-Tite.

Regulations :

Riders must have participated in one of the youth barrel competitions listed in the competition locations section. On each weekend, riders can qualify for the right to enter St-Tite (depending on the results of the competitions). If a rider is already qualified in the 1st positions of the go, we take the following positions. The rider can register a single mount at St-Tite. When the rider is qualified, we go directly to the next position. During registration, the rider can register with the mount of their choice. If the rider is injured, we move on to the next person.

Online registration, the date is to be determined. Check the information during the summer on the website of the IPRA Canada (www.ipracanada.com). All participants will pass in the slack, with the 8 best times passing on the Final on Sunday at 4:30pm.

Anyone who has made an entry and who does not show up for the competitions, must pay the registration fees for the class or classes concerned. Only medical proof can cancel these costs.
